CATS ABOUT BODY

Find Remains of Aged Woman Surrounded by Pets.

Family of Felines Attack Police When Attempt is Made to Remove Corpse—Father Was at One Time Cashier of a Bank.

Philadelphia.—The body of an aged woman, attired in a dirt-stained wrapper, lying within a circle of cats, was found by two special policemen when they entered an unkempt, dust-covered front room at 640 North Sixteenth street in answer to an anonymous telephone call.

The cats were the only living beings in the house, and the policemen were forced to battle with them before they could move the body of the dead woman. Investigation showed that she was Miss Sarah Lippincott Starr, seventy years old, who, with her sister, Victoria, and a horde of cats, had occupied the house for the last 12 years. Shortly after midnight Miss Victoria Starr, who is sixty-eight years old, came upon her sister lying at full length near the cellar door on the first floor. She did not disturb her for several hours because she thought she was sleeping.

Later when she knew her sister to be dead, she notified her nephew, whose name, she says, is Walter Jordan. He called the policemen of the Twentieth and Buttonwood station.

Miss Victoria was out when the policemen called.

Police Surgeon John H. Egan found that the left arm was discolored and swollen from an infected scratch on the hand. Miss Victoria then returned and explained that her sister had pricked herself three days before with a needle but had refused to have medical aid.

"We never had a doctor in our lives and we weren't going to begin with them," said the sister.

"We were a couple of regular old maids," she said complacently, "but nice ones," she added quickly. And then she lapsed into the present tense as if her sister were still alive. "We love animals, all kinds, birds, dogs, horses, snakes, but especially cats; O, I love 'em, that is, four-legged ones. But I don't like two-legged ones," she mumbled reflectively, and shook her head decisively. "I like rats, too. Those in the cellar get many a scrap from me. Sure I feed 'em, but I have trouble keeping the cats away. Well, I'm all alone now, except for the cats, but I'll scrape along, although money is scarce."

Miss Victoria Starr is now the last of the five children of Samuel Starr, who was the cashier, 25 years ago, of the Bank of the Northern Liberties. The body of her sister, Sarah, was removed to the morgue. Doctor Egan said the death was due to natural causes.

Robbers Ask Postmaster to Keep No More Pennies as They Weigh Too Much.

Branchville, N. J.—When Postmaster William P. Ellett arrived at the post office one morning recently he found the interior in disorder and the following sign painted on the back of a calendar hung over the safe: "Have a heart! What's this place—a kid's toy bank? Wise up! Never keep pennies; they weigh too much."

A hurried investigation showed that the safe had been robbed of about two dollars, all in pennies, which had been left in a drawer at night, after all the silver and bills had been taken home by the postmaster. In a drawer above the one where the pennies were left was $8 worth of stamps, but these were left undisturbed. The robbers gained entrance by forcing the lock on the front door.

BIG RATTLER CAUSES PANIC

Hundreds Flee Philadelphia Station When the Reptile Appears—Captured and Taken to Zoo.

Philadelphia.—Several hundred persons at the Broad street station of the Pennsylvania railroad were thrown into a panic by the sudden appearance of an eight foot diamond back rattlesnake. Accompanied by the shrieks of frightened women, commuters deserted the train shed and left the rattler in possession. Special officers captured the monster with a bag and took it to the city hall, where it was turned over to the zoological garden authorities. It is not known where the snake came from, but it is believed it arrived here in a car load of tropical fruit.

LINEMAN ASLEEP ON POLE

Many People in Oregon Town Thought That He Had Been Electro-cuted.

Pendleton, Ore.—M. Morgan, a local telephone lineman, caused a commotion at the intersection of Main and Bluff streets when he fell asleep at the top of a telephone pole.

Passersby, seeing the motionless figure of a man lying across the cross-arm with arms and legs dangling in the air, thought he had been electrocuted. When assistance arrived it was found the man had merely been lulled to sleep by the warm sun. His belt prevented his falling.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS

(Cincinnati-Enquirer.)

Every woman is quick to detect flattery when it is applied to some other woman.

While a man may not openly regret having married his wife, he often secretly wonders why he married her.

The one good thing about every man is his own opinion of himself.

No real boy is ever tempted to steal the sort of a dog that a woman carries around in her arms and kisses.

Use for Lily Leaves.

A powder made from the leaves of water lilies is successful in making various fabrics waterproof. The inventor of the powder noticing that water was not absorbed when it fell on the leaves, but slid off, conceived the idea that the same substance which made the lily leaf waterproof might be used in connection with fabrics. The powder from the leaves is mixed with water, and the process consists in immersing the fabric in this mixture.

Five of a June Morning.

Got up before five and went down to replant corn. As I topped the hill the crows flew off, cawing angrily. "This is our time," they seemed to say. Found hill after hill scratched over and the sprouting corn scattered about. At 5 a. m. in June one has the weather of 9 a. m. in October or high noon in December.—From "A Farmer's Note Book," by C. E. D. Phelps.

Division of Labor.

While it takes 40 persons to make a washboard, 120 to make a shoe, somewhere between fifty and sixty to construct a corset, a score or more to manufacture a single pair of overalls, and equal numbers to produce other simple articles in daily use, the task of proportioning to the worker a fair wage for his or her exertions is not so simple a matter as some would have us believe. But a fair division would be a much easier problem to solve were each worker placed on an equality in bargaining.

Our Dwelling Place.

The earth is not a place of atonement; it is that dwelling place of ours where we must toil for the achievement of the ideal truth and justice—the ideal of which the rudiments are hidden in every man's soul.—Mazzini.

An Amateur.

"Some saintly folk in this town are always throwing the game of poker at our unoffending head," says a Georgia editor. "We want to say, once for all, that we don't know the game. THE CASE OF L. L. CANTELOU.

The case of L. L. Cantelou, Clarendon, Texas, is similar to that of many others who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says, "After trying a doctor for several months, and using different kinds of medicine for my wife who had been troubled with severe bowel complaint for several months, I bought a 25c bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using the second bottle she was entirely cured." For sale by all dealers.

Scouring Paste.

To make a good scouring mixture for boards, work into a paste half a pound of soft soap, half a pound of sand and a quarter of a pound of lime. Put it on with a scrubbing brush instead of soap, and then wash off with plenty of clean water.

SUMMER CONSTIPATION DANGEROUS.

Constipation in Summer-time is more dangerous than in the fall, winter or spring. The food you eat is often contaminated and is more likely to ferment in your stomach. Then you are apt to drink much cold water, thus injuring your stomach. Colic, Fever, Ptomaine Poisoning and other ills are natural results. Po-Do-Lax will keep you well, as it increases the bile, the natural laxative, which aids the bowels of the congested poisonous waste. Po-Do-Lax will make you feel better. Pleasant and effective. Take a dose to-night. 50c, at your Druggist.
